G. S. TROOP 510
AT GALA PARTY
Mothers of girls in Elementary P.T.A. sponsored Scout Troop No. 510 were guests at a delightful supper party given recently in Scout House.

Mexico, as the party theme, provided the decorative motif. Fall tapers and gay colored flowers were arranged by the girls and paper dolls in gay colors were used as favors and place cards. The girls, dressed in bright colored costumes of old Mexico, greeted their mothers. Recordings, made during the supper hour, added an interesting note.

A beautiful pin was given to Mrs. Don Wolf, troop leader, who was also the recipient of a lovely corsage.

A skit honoring the mothers of the girls then presented by the troop. Another feature of the evening was the presentation of an attractively designed hand made apron to each mother by her Girl Scout daughter.

Those present were Josephine Rosenberg, Georgia Tournage, Eleanor Carter, Roberta Toutor, Ruth Alford, Shirley Owen, Darlene Faulkner, Shirley Northway, Jimmie J. Pauline Matthews, Jackie Nair, Berry Donnell, Carol Jacobs, Norma Jean LeClerc, Judith Yeltema, Zora Shirley, Mary Ann Lenton, Jackie Johnson, Gleva Comstock, Donna Pat and Judy Wolf, and the girls' mothers.

Student Winners Of Spelling Bee Are Announced

Barbara Spangler is the new spelling champion of Torrance High School. She competed before the Rotary Club on May 16 against four other student contestants.

Barbara Kelley and Carol Schaffer were the winners of the Junior High contest, with Don Bingham, Beverly Wernett and Barbara Spangler leading in the Senior High contest at school.

Five students appeared before the Rotary Club where the final spell-down was held. Don Bingham, A9, won second; Barbara Kelley, B9, third; Carol Schaffer, B9, fourth; and Beverly Wernett, A9, fifth. Beverly also was the winner of last year's contest.

After the spell-down, five Rotary Club members spelled in competition with the school students in the lead.

Contract Awarded For Reconstruction Of Western Avenue

On motion of Supervisor Raymond V. Darby, the Board of Supervisors at its Tuesday meeting awarded the contract for the contemplated improvement along Western avenue to Fred D. Chadwick, the lowest bidder, in the estimated amount of $51,604.59. The improvement is to consist of pavement, curbs and gutters between a point 800 feet north of 174th street and 182nd street on Western ave.

Three Arts Studio Presents Spring Review

Torrance Civic Auditorium at 8 o'clock tonight will be the scene of the Annual Spring Review to be staged by Martha Rickard and Edward T. Rickard of the Three Arts Studio. The review, with glamorous costumes, is not a recital but a climax of the season's work, they point out.

An all-star performance of dancing will feature tap and ballet groups and many outstanding artists in tap, adagio, ballet and acrobatic solo and team numbers will be presented. The dramatics department will be represented by snappy skits and monologues and outstanding two-act plays, playing on two grand pianos.

Most of the dances on the program have been arranged by Mrs. Rickard.

Accompanying for the review will be done by Ecor Rosenberg, of Long Beach, Mrs. E. C. Cade and Charles A. Cade, of Pasadena. Charles A. Cade is a member of the Three Arts Studio staff, specializing in violin and clarinet instruction.

Ted Lesser and other Hollywood and Los Angeles talent scouts will be present.

Folk dances by members of Girl Scout Troop 610 will depict Poland, Russia, Ireland, Scotland and America.

A lovely Chinese solo dance by ten-year-old Marjorie Lovell will be highlighted. Young artists appearing on the program include:

INSTALLATION OF SEWERS IN AREA NEAR CITY OKAY

On motion of Supervisor Raymond V. Darby, the Board of Supervisors at its Tuesday meeting adopted a resolution ordering the installation of sanitary sewers and appurtenances in certain alleys and other rights of way in the vicinity of Avenue A, Redondo Beach, under County Improvement No. 1131, and set June 18th as the date for receiving and opening of bids on said improvement.

YOUNG MATRON IS SHOWER HONOREE

The home of Mrs. Orpha Bergen, on Sonoma ave., was an attractive setting for a shower arranged recently to honor Mrs. Irene Berger.

The creation of a scrap book for the honor guest, with prizes for the most unique contributions, preceded the presentation of a beautiful group gift for the host-to-be.

Those present were Mrs. Berger and Mrs. Margaret Wheat, Pearl Robinson, Gladys Rentmeister, Georgia Newland, Mae Harris, Amy Fuller, all of Torrance; Edith Smith, of Lomita; Naomi Young, Geraldine Hatrup, Misses Marlene Christensen and Cora Gilliland, Gardena; Mmes. Lazola Harris, Workman, Rita Harris, all of Lawndale.

BETSY ROSS CLUB REPORTS MEETING

Members of Betsy Ross Star Club were delightfully entertained at luncheon Tuesday afternoon at Masonic Temple. Mrs. Amanda Law and her committee, Mmes. Margaret Raymond, Harshberger, Billie Kerber and Gwendolyn Knudson were in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Mildred Edwards presided at the business session following. A report was made of the recent rummage sale held in the Allen building and a vote of appreciation for use of the building was given the owner.

Mrs. Raymond will have charge of the next meeting of the organization which will be a pot luck luncheon to be held in Torrance City Park on Tuesday, May 25.

Mrs. Edna Babcock and her committee will serve on the hostess committee for the club's regular monthly card party on Saturday evening, May 25, in Masonic Temple.

ADAGIO TEAM... Talented Torrance youngsters who have won the hearts of all who have seen them are Cindy Hornick and Stevie Hornick who will appear in numbers during the Annual Spring Review of the Three Arts Studio in the Torrance Civic Auditorium tonight at 8 o'clock. Cindy Hornick, adopted this week by Torrance Lions club as its "Lioness Cub," also appears solo.

Local Parents Entertain In Honor Of Son

Honoring their son, Pfc. William P. Davis, U.S.M.C., Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Davis, of 3906 Emerald st., entertained at dinner recently. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Felker; of Torrance, and Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Burnett and daughter, Dorothy Jean, of San Gabriel.

Pfc. Davis has been serving as Marine guard aboard the U.S.S. General George M. Randall. He had made two trips to Japan and one to China, and will leave soon for another Pacific voyage.

FERN AVENUE PLANS PAPER DRIVE MAY 21

Fern Avenue P. T. A. will sponsor a paper drive, the last one this semester, to be held tomorrow, Friday, May 24. The executive board will serve luncheon to the faculty and others assisting with the drive.

NEWS OF WOMEN OF THE MOOSE

Torrance Chapter No. 44, Women of the Moose, entertained as guest of honor at the last meeting, Isabelle Hollar, grand graduate regent.

A representative group from this chapter will attend the institution of the new Inglewood Moose Auxiliary on Wednesday, May 29.

The next regular card party will be held at Moose Hall, 1951 Carson st., at 8:00 o'clock, Wednesday, June 5. Hostesses for the party will be Ila Mae Ambach and other members of the membership committee.

PEGGY PECK, Publicity chairman.

SCHOOL PROGRESS

Bulldozers have been busy this week tearing down trees on the Torrance high school property to make room for a new school cafeteria and the refurbishing of a larger recreational area.

Many scarce items are listed under the "Misc For Sale" column in the Classified Ad Section of the Torrance Herald and Lomita News.

MEMORIAL SERVICES AND PARADE SCHEDULED NEXT THURSDAY IN TORRANCE

Torrance will honor her war dead with Memorial day services in El Prado park, which will follow a parade of patriotic, fraternal, veterans organizations and auxiliaries, and allied organizations.

The parade will form on Torrance blvd. just west of Crescent blvd., proceed down Torrance blvd. to Sartori ave., follow Sartori ave. to Marcelina ave., Marcelina to Cravens ave., and break up at the Northeast end of El Prado park where the Memorial ceremony will be conducted on the plot of ground dedicated by the City Council a year ago to the memory of the men and women of Torrance who gave their lives in World Wars I and II.

Capt. John F. Melanic, patriotic instructor for Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 3251, Torrance, is general chairman, assisted by James Brodie, commander of Bert S. Crossland post, the American Legion.

Capt. R. L. Lewellen Sr., commanding Co. H, 2nd Battalion, 39th Regiment, California State Guard, has been named as parade marshal. Troops of the 2nd Battalion will participate in the parade, and Co. H, Torrance, will furnish a color guard, firing party and bugler for the ceremony.

Features of the ceremony will include a Memorial day address, roll call of the departed, firing of a volley over the dedicated spot and sounding of taps.

Members of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars have been asked to turn out on mass for the parade. Membership in both organizations has more than tripled since a year ago, and they are being requested to show their strength by providing full marching units.

Likewise, the auxiliary members are being asked to march. Navy Mothers also will participate. Gold Star Mothers will have a special section in both the parade and ceremony.

Holders of the Order of the Purple Heart also will be honored, and the American Red Cross will participate.

The Civil Air Patrol cadets have been asked to enter a parade unit, as have the Boy and Girl Scout troops of the city, the Moose lodge and others.

This ceremony will last approximately one hour, according to Captain Melanic.

INFORMAL PARTY HONORS HONOLULU VISITOR

Complimenting Mrs. Curtin Leser, of Honolulu, who is visiting here at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hedberg, Mrs. Gil J. Derouin entertained at her home Thursday evening. Spring flowers decorated the room and at the close of the evening ice cream sundaes and cake were served. Reminiscences of their school days when many of the guests were students at Torrance high school, occupied the group.

Those present were the honoree and Mmes. Edith Quayle, Helen Tavan, Bertha Hedberg, Dorothy Colombo, Theo Thistle, Louise Diesel, Veronice Toppo, Mickey Donofrio, Betty Smith, Rita Zaver, Orpha Bergen, the hostess and her mother, Mrs. C. E. Ward.

POSTAL WORKERS GREET PAY RAISE BILL SIGNING

Torrance postal workers today were rejoicing the signing by President Truman of a bill giving nearly all postal workers a $400 yearly pay increase.

Those who don't get the $400 boost are fourth-class postmasters, who receive a 20 percent raise, and part-time workers, who receive a gain of 20 cents hourly.

All the increases are retroactive to Jan. 1, 1946. Approximately 400,000 workers come under the measure. The total cost was estimated at approximately $160,000,000 yearly.
